TEWKESBURY HORRORS.

Further Testimony Relating to the Inhumanities Practiced by the Management.

Boston, April 13 .- In the Tewkesbury Alms-house investigation yesterday, J. C. Burt testified that he had made the lowest bid to supply milk to the alms-house, but others had secured the contracts. Governor Butler introduced the testimony of former inmates, one of whom, Jas. A. Goodwin, corroborates the testimony as to the indiscriminate bathing of healthy and deceased patients in the same water. Good clothing, which he had taken to the almshouse, had been stolen from him. He had complained to General Butler of the bathing abuses, and they stopped soon after.

Harriet A. Jackson said she got very little to eat at the alms-house, and it was of poor quality. She left in consequence.

Otto Hoinden, a German, testified that he was obliged to bathe in water that had been used by men having sores, and was compelled to work in the bakery.

Charles B. Marsh, clerk at Tewkesbury, and son of the Superintendent, was next called. He kept the books. All the books have been sent to the State-house. No register of burials of the dead has been kept, and there is no means of finding out what has become of inmates who have died. The

"My books have no record of the clothing which the inmates brought to the institution. Money belonging to mmates is given to me when they come, and I give it

Major Phipps Once More in Custody

PHILADELPHIA, April 13 .- Major Phipps. the absconding Philadelphia official, will arrive here to-day from Hamilton, Ont., in charge of Capt, R. J. Lindar and Officer Bell, of Pinkerton's agency. Speaking of his rearrest, District Attorney Graham says: "I will endeavor to have Major Phipps committed without bail. It has been shown that $13,000 bail was insufficient to insure his presence, and the chances are that $20,000 bonds would not be any more efficacious in holding him. It is a matter entirely discretionary with the court, but I believe the measures should be taken to retain the Major for trial this time."

Made a Clean Job of It.

CLEVELAND, O., April 13 .- At 5:30 o'clock this Imorning Johnson Zeiter, a German, of No. 188 Wiley street, committed suicide by shooting, death resulting instantly. DEDUAM, Mass., April 13 .- The spinners at the Merchant's Woolen Mill struck this morning, for an advance for ten cents per hundred reels. By their action they force ! the weaves to quit work, and there are between 300 or 400 men out. They are now making from 80 cents to $1,50 per day, and they wanted to average $1.25 per day, Their employers threaten to reduce the wages ten per cent, unless all hands return to work, as the mill is losing money and is only running to accommodate the help.

Madison, Wis., April 13 .- The Governor last evening received a dispatch from the Sheriff at Superior, Douglas county, saying that he was wholly unable, without bloodshed, to hold the attached property in the suit against the Page & Sexsmith Lumber Company. The Sheriff added that a hundred ex-employes of the company were foreibly removing the property for wages. The Governor telegraphed the Sheriff to call on the authorities of the countles and all good citizens to maintain him in his duties.

READING, PA., April 13,-It was learned at the office of the Rending Iron Works today that Monday next the rolling and sheet mills will be shut down indefinitely, on account of the duliness of trade. Between four and five hundred hands will be thrown out of work. The company refused large orders recently at prices which would lose them money. Their pipe mill is running on half time. A committee of the strikers called at the office of the Mellert foundry his morning and agreed to compromise the lifficulties between the proprietors and men for five per cent. increase of wages. The men originally wanted ten to fifteen per cent, increase all around. All went to work except three.

THEATER OF DEATH.

Terrific Gas Explosion During a Perfor name , Resulting in Twenty-One

Killed and 100 Mortally Wounded. Paris, April 13.-A terrible explosion, accompanied by heavy loss of life, occurred at the theater in Revel, a town of about 6:000 inhabitants, on the River Garonne. A comedy was being performed by a Lyons Company, and about 9:30, while several actors were on the stage, a tremendous explasion occurred, blowing off the roof, tions, and buiging out the walls par fally. In an instant all was dark, save a portloa of the scenery, which had caught on fire, giving in indistinct light to the terrable grave. The shricks and grouns and er es of pain made the small auditos riar a perfect pandemonium. Several ing Works exploded this morning almost M.
